MEMORANDUM FOR To Whom it may Concern

FROM:

M. Tolin, Recreation Specialist

SUBJECT:

Inmate Cedric Dean, #11907-058

Inmate Dean is currently the Basketball Commissioner for the Intramural Sports league at the USP. He is very organized and dependable. Prior to the league's activation, inmate Dean taught a month long Basketball Officials Class. Which consisted of one on one instruction with each student/referee. Under his management, there hasn't been any physical confrontations among the inmate participants. Inmate Dean has remarkable communication skills, which allows him to prevent smaller problems from becoming larger problems.

MEMORANDUM FOR WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

FROM:

N. Pea, Lieutenant

Inmate Cedric Dean, #11907-058

This memorandum is written on behalf of the above-mentioned inmate and his work ethic while assigned to the United States Penitentiary, Tucson. Inmate Dean is very cooperative with staff and does a great job keeping the peace amongst the inmates from the Southern Region. He is a very respectful inmate and has been a great asset to the Correctional Services Department. Currently he is working in the Officer Dining Hall, which is a detail only privileged inmates are permitted to be assigned. Again, this inmate is very cooperative with staff and is willing to help staff at any giving time.
